“CHANGE” Power Talk Featuring PRAKASH IYER

One of the Best-Selling Authors, Leadership Coach & Motivational Speaker; Mr. Prakash Iyer was the Power Talk Speaker for Day 4. He spoke on the topic 'Change' and emphasized on the thought of "Small Changes = Big Win". He shared his experiences and spoke to the audience about how small changes can indeed make a huge difference. The session was so impactful that Mr. Prakash Iyer received a standing ovation from the audience.

General Assembly

2019 JCI President Alexander Tio presented to the General Assembly the entire team that would inspire change and bring about sustainable development in the world. The 2019 Board of Directors were administered oath of office. The Executive Vice Presidents were also assigned their areas and warmly cheered by the audience. The General Assembly was addressed by Mr. Sudhir Mungantiwar, the Hon'ble Minister for Finance, Planning and Forest, Government of Maharashtra. 2018 JCI World Congress Director Poonam Shirsat presented her report by putting forth facts and figures and also highlighting some of the key events that have taken place during the Congress. She thanked and appreciated the Congress Organizing Committee for their efforts and dedication in making this World Congress successful for which the audience stood and gave a thunderous round of applause.

Skills Development Forum

A skill development session was conducted under the guidance of Marion de Groot, who is a requirement analyst and pick my brain facilitator. She opened up techniques which was an opportunity to empower JCI members and young people by developing their knowledge and skill needed to create sustainable impact. Delegates learned about latest program developments and also provided their valuable feedback.

Partnering for Impact

The delegates participated in a workshop called to learn about 'How to Partner for Impact'. Delegates learned about how JCI partners with many international organizations to ignite positive change in local communities. JCI has established international partnerships throughout the world that can benefit JCI Local Organizations in different ways. Through these partnerships, JCI has defined new goals, ideas and values that Local and National Organizations can use to create positive change. The two golden rules of partnership were explained to the delegates, which were (1) Partnerships and Fundraising are all founded in Relationships and (2) People Give to and Partner with People.
